Six Twenty Six, LLC is an award-winning advertising and marketing firm specializing in promotional products. Since 1998, Owner/Member Michele Cochran, MAS, MASi, has been passionate about providing creative ideas and promotional solutions that result in measurable returns, even in highly competitive environments. A graduate of Cornell University with a Bachelor of Science in Public Communications and Master's in Advertising Specialties earned from both professional accredited institutions, Michele knows the value of promotional products goes deeper than just the product; it is about how the recipient feels and length of time in use that results in extremely low cost per impression. Focused on delivering unparalleled customer service by fostering transparency and trust, Six Twenty Six welcomes collaboration, embracing ways to innovate while being mindful to focus on sustainability.

Our Guiding Principles

Our Mission:
To help you tell your story masterfully with products that build and reinforce your company's unique identity.

Our Philosophy:
We listen. We care. We deliver. Relationships matter, and we make them work.

Our Mandate:
We deliver products with substance and soul, on time and on budget.

With a diverse, international client group, Six Twenty Six embraces all ways to innovate while staying focused on delivering unparalleled client service by fostering transparency and trust. Six Twenty Six is your vested partner, working collaboratively to achieve your sales and marketing goals, and brand vision.

Six Twenty Six affiliated with iPROMOTEu, the nation's largest & fastest growing distributor group in August 2017 to provide the best technical & back-end support services in the promotional products industry. Six Twenty Six was recognized as an exclusive member of the iPROMOTEu Elite100 in 2018, a designation given to top producing affiliate distributors in the network.
